

AHPRA Training Plan – Emergency Department Registrar

Employee details: Deva Subasic de Azevedo

Location and duration: Geraldton Hospital, 12 months

Purpose:

The purpose of this role is to provide a high-quality clinical service to departmental attendees, in consultation with Emergency Physicians and other independently practicing Emergency Doctors.

To further develop clinical judgement and procedural skills.

This role will further the understanding of the Australian healthcare system, with a focus on the needs of regional, rural and remote communities.

Support towards activities required for transition from limited to general AHPRA registration with identification of personalized learning goals and planning surrounding progressing towards these goals.

Content:

- Emergency Doctors will perform clinical duties and patient care in accordance to their skill level;
- Facilitate admission if indicated, including communication with inpatient teams and retrieval services as required;
- Refers patients to specialist services as required;
- Determines suitability for discharge, provide suitable discharge information, and arrange appropriate follow-up with associated documentation;
- Supports colleagues including nurses and other health workers in the performance of their duties;
- Maintains quality patient medical records according to health service protocol;
- Communicates appropriately and regularly with patients and relatives, including counselling;
- Have primary responsibility to ensure that patients are treated in a timely fashion based on clinical needs and ATS guidelines;
- Attends to medicolegal issues that arise concerning patients that have been under their care;

51-85 Shenton Street, GERALDTON WA 6530
Letters: PO Box 22, GERALDTON WA 6531
Tel: (08) 9956 2222 Fax: (08) 9956 2342
ABN 28 680 145 816
www.wacountry.health.wa.gov.au

- Will retain overall responsibility for all patients who remain in the ED, regardless of whether they have been transferred to an inpatient team;
- Develops and maintains the skills necessary to provide safe medical practice; Participates in continued medical education activities, both as recipient and as a provider;
- Attend monthly emergency Department education sessions;
- Attend simulations and educational meetings run by visiting education specialists;
- Increase exposure to, and familiarity managing patients from culturally diverse backgrounds and complete associated hospital online training;
- Acts as a role model for medical students and post-graduate trainees;
- Participates in clinical governance and quality improvement activities;

Assessments:

- Monthly informal meetings with principal supervisor to discuss learning needs and ongoing development;
- Three-monthly formal meetings with principal supervisor for completion of AHPRA work performance reports or more frequently if required

Dr Bronwyn Johnson
FACEM, Geraldton Hospital

21 December 2022